Creating Change

A Self-Hypnosis Workshop for Hypnotists

presented by: Daniel F. Cleary

For the Hypnotist, this nationally certified program is complete, ready to deliver as a service of your practice. Offered for the first time as a Tele-conference, this is the perfect program for you to use for World Hypnotism Day, January 4, 2006.

Participants will learn to present this program as a one-hour introductory lecture in your community and using it as a great marketing tool, you can also offer Creating Change in two, two-hour sessions for those who attend your lecture and want to learn more!

Developed to assist rapid and continuing enhancement of innate skills and abilities, this workshop offers a deeper understanding of how we create the life we live. Discover the role motivation and the way in which we learn guarantees success and find the previously hidden influences impacting our thoughts and behavior.

If you are already involved with programs for the public you know how much goes into the development of an effective program. If you are new to the front of the room, you will be astounded with the immediate success you experience.

Contact the AllStars today to arrange your participation in this program and to host the All-Stars at your location!
