

Brief Guide to Some Social Media/Networking Sites

<h3>Twitter</h3> Tweet: a short message answering the question: "What are you doing?" (140 character limit) RT: Re-tweet, copy and resend someone else's tweet. Include RT to let people know it is a resend. @(username): a message directed to a specific person. Still seen by your followers. Direct Message: a private tweet, not seen by others. Can only be sent to someone who follows you.	<h3>Facebook</h3> Status: Write what is on your mind, short or long. What you are doing or how you are feeling, or whatever. Comment: Reply to a friend's Status Requests: Others asking you to take further action. You can chose to do so or ignore it. Has Internal email, to send private messages to friends. – Go to Inbox. Mafia Wars, Farmville, Hearts, etc: Games that you can play/Gifts you receive. (Can be hidden from your Newsfeed.)
<h3>Linked In</h3> What have you been working on?: Write a short update for your connections at least once a week. Recommendations: If one of your connections deserves it, write them a recommendation. They may write your club one in return. Answers: Gives you the ability to ask questions of the all the business people who are registered on the site.	<h3>MySpace</h3> Status: a short message answering the question: "What are you doing?" (140 character limit) Mood: A one word description and an emoticon (smiley face). Bulletin Space: a place to post articles (longer posts) and videos

Remember: Using these sights is about building relationships with people, not just asking for a sale or a donation. So, post the everyday, the funny, the informative, your progress or setbacks.

Just try it and have fun.